

A Prayer for Those Struggling to Pray By Sarah Bournes

May God meet you anyway.
When you have no words to say
Would you let your body pray through you today?
Wordless prayers of movement, taste, and touch
Of stillness, sight, and sound
Of hands raised up
Of knees bowed down
The language of lighting a candle
Humming a song
Watering the plants
Walking the dog
Savoring your coffee
Shivering in the breeze
Stirring potato soup
Crunching fallen leaves
Breathing in His mercy
Tasting His sweetness
Listening for His goodness
Touching His kindness
When all your words fail, may you remember
That praying is much more than speaking.
It is being
With the One who loves to be with you.
So, go paint your prayers
Play your prayers
Dance your prayers
Draw your prayers
Bake your prayers
Breathe your prayers
Run your prayers
Hug your prayers
Laugh your prayers
Cry your prayers
And allow your hands and feet
And fingers and nose
And arms and eyes
And shoulders, knees, and toes
To carry your prayers
To the foot of the throne
To the One who needs no words
Because He already knows.

Thank you for doing your part in keeping our congregation safe by wearing a face mask as you enter/exit the church and during singing.

2020 ANNUAL REPORTS ARE AVAILABLE ON THE TABLE AT THE BACK OF THE SANCTUARY.

OFFERING ENVELOPES – 2021 offering envelopes are located on the table at the back of the sanctuary. See Robert if you have any questions.

5TH SUNDAY OF PRAYER is TONIGHT (1-31) at 6 PM. In addition to the other requests presented, we will focus on praying for Couples in our Church and Community. Marriage and family are at the core of God's plan for Creation. That is why Satan attacks those relationships with ferocity. Our first and greatest defense and weapon is prayer. Join us tonight to seek God on behalf of our family relationships.
