

Our Story vs. His Story

Luke 24:13-49

*The Lord has risen! (response) He is risen indeed!

On Easter, we celebrate the central doctrine of Christianity – the

They knew Jesus had promised to rise after three days, but they hadn't _____ it

Jesus opened their eyes and their _____

Because Jesus is alive, everything He said is true

Because Jesus is alive, everything He _____ will come to pass

To see what is true, you must see things HIS way.

KNEES AND FEET (Prayer and Action): Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you to a change of mind and action.

Jesus encouraged Thomas to “stop doubting and believe.” Are there things that you’re doubting about Jesus today? Ask Him to open your eyes to see the Truth and to trust His promises. The Lord has risen, and you can trust His guidance. The Lord has risen, and you can trust Him to provide you with all that you need to follow Him daily.

How could Jesus’ resurrection change your view of the circumstances you find yourself in? Live in His resurrection life, not in the circumstances.
