

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall

Jonah 4

Why did God intend this story to end this way?

Remember, God is always in control.

The book ends this way to lead us to explore the question, "what would _____ have _____?"

Am I OK with God loving and forgiving His enemies? Am I OK with God loving and forgiving MY enemies?

The end of this story is being written by _____ and _____ every day

How can you be an ambassador of God's unlimited love and compassion to those around you?

KNEES AND FEET (Prayer and Action): Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you to a change of mind and action.

Like Jonah, we need to evaluate our attitudes toward people around us. Can you honestly answer the question, am I OK with God loving and forgiving His enemies? Am I OK with God loving and forgiving MY enemies?

Ask God to guide you. How does He want you to be an ambassador of His unlimited love and compassion toward those around you?
